

State of the art centre for wildlife

■ CENTRE manager Michelle Williams with some "wildlife" cakes

A NEW state of the art RSPB Wild Weymouth Discovery Centre has opened at Radipole Lake.

The centre has undergone major refurbishment to become a dedicated information and advice point, welcoming visitors and showcasing wildlife on the reserve, at its sister site at Lodmoor and throughout the borough.

Among the fantastic new features at the centre are screens showing video and live footage of the reserve's wildlife, information boards and large reserve maps, full-length blackboards detailing forthcoming events and reserve sightings and impromptu art work.

There is also a coffee shop with indoor and patio seating, a customer toilet with baby changing facilities and improved access for disabled people. There will also be free wi-fi access so visitors can surf the web.

New boardwalks have been installed out on the reserve and, along with upgraded footpaths, they are all wheelchair and pushchair accessible, leading to raised viewing platforms and giving bird's eye views into otherwise hidden areas of the reedbeds, ditches and open water. There is also a new storytelling and picnic area with wonderfully carved wildlife-themed wooden seating.

Centre manager Michelle Williams said: "We believe the new facilities and family trail will give our visitors the best possible experience they can have of our beautiful Weymouth Wetlands.

"It is really exciting, completely different, and it gives us much more flexibility while the new family trail and boardwalks around the reserve have gone down a treat."

"The place is much more interactive and people will be able to get involved in all sorts of ways, whether it's drawing their own pictures of the wildlife they've seen up on the blackboards, watching the nest

Community stunned by loss of fishermen

WEYMOUTH is in mourning after the fishing boat, Purbeck Isle, with three men on board sank off Portland.

The body of skipper David McFarlane, 34, was found 24 hours after the search started last Thursday.

Fellow crew members Jack Craig, 22, and Robert Prowse, 20, are still missing and Portland Coastguard's Mark Rodaway said that there was no hope now that the two fishermen could be found alive.

Those last remaining hopes were dashed when an object discovered by survey ship Odyssey Explorer 160ft down on the sea bed ten miles off Portland was later identified as being the wreck of the Purbeck Isle.

CHEF Tony Morraffa has worked in catering for more than three decades and has run the Country Kitchen in Weymouth for the past two years. But it was his conversion of Bridport's Café Royal into a 1950s themed diner that caught the public's imagination.

He has described refurbishing the building as "like opening a can of worms" but successfully reopened the iconic local landmark a month ago. Originally from Leicester, the 47-year-old has lived in Weymouth for 20 years and makes the hour-long round trip to Bridport daily to run his new venture.

■ WHEN did you start in the restaurant business?

I've been working in kitchens since I was 15-years-old. I started as a kitchen porter, which in those days was just a pot washer, and worked my way up. I trained as a chef when I was 18-years-old and since then I've been cooking in pubs, hotels, restaurants, all kinds of places.

■ WHAT made you take on the Café Royal?

It's always been a dream of mine to run a 50s style cafe. Then one day someone was selling some equipment at the Café Royal and I came down to have a look at it. After that I've always quite fancied having the place. The news of somebody leaving it gave me the idea of taking it on and doing something with it.

■ WHAT'S your fascination with the 1950s?

I have always had an interest in the period. The music, the style, it was just a way of life I suppose. It was something I didn't experience first hand - I was born in the sixties - but my parents were very much into the music and the style sort of rubbed off on me if you like. I was always hearing Buddy Holly, The Big Bopper, The Everly Brothers, music like that.

■ HOW did you go about designing the interior of the café?

I had a rough idea of what I was going to do with the place before I started. I had photographs of American diners, things I had seen online. The old HMV record player on the counter I got from the attic in my mum's house. The hubcaps you see on the wall, I'd already collected. I've been collecting them for years and I've got around 60 now. People come into the café to photograph them. My favourite is the Oldsmobile - it's from the 50s and is the oldest one I have. A lot are American. The Chevrolet ones are from a vehicle I actually drove.

■ RUNNING two restaurants takes a lot of work. What motivates you?

I've just got the ambition and drive to expand and do that kind of thing. I'd like to do more. Obviously I've got to see how the Café Royal goes, but I'm confident it's going to make money, so eventually when another premises comes up similar to this one, then who knows, I might look into it. It was a lot of work to refurbish this place but at the end of the day it's what you put into something that gives you your returns back. The more you put in, the more you get back.

■ EVER want a break?

Yeah, I need one. I work seven days a week. I haven't had a holiday for four years. My last project, the Country Kitchen in Weymouth, took two years to get where it is today and now I've taken this on. I'm just a bit of a workaholic I suppose and I'm doing quite well to stay on my feet sometimes. I don't really have any hobbies apart from cooking and music.

■ HOW important is music to you?

It's very important. I'd like to turn the Café Royal into a bit of a music venue if I could. If there are people into music like rhythm & blues, rock n' roll or any music from that era, I'd like to get them here. I've had a band play here already and it's been really good. Also I've played guitar since I was 14, on and off. I've got an electric guitar, a nice old Fender Strat. I've thought about bringing it down and hanging it up somewhere but it's quite expensive and I don't really want it getting clattered.

■ WHAT do you like about living in the Dorset?

It's the beautiful countryside. My mum's lived in Portland for 25, 30 years, and I've been in Weymouth 20, so it's my home now. I went back to Leicester not so long back and when I got off at the main bus station in the centre of town, it just didn't seem like home at all any more. It was just a different place really.

■ WHO are your heroes?

Elvis Presley, no question. Marilyn Monroe, obviously. And Diana Dors, when she was younger.

Jewish community to be revived in Weymouth

PLANS are being made to set up the first centre for Weymouth and Portland's Jewish community since the Second World War.

Temporary synagogues were arranged at nearby wartime military bases but there has been nothing like it for nearly 70 years.

Now Lord Morris Mendoza of the Studio Guesthouse on Dorchester Road, who lost most of his family in the Holocaust, plans to change all that.

He said: "We celebrated the Festival of Passover here with 17 local Jews and the feeling was that we needed a local centre for the Jewish community in the South Dorset area."

"We don't want a synagogue because we feel it would be too Jewish! What we do want is somewhere to meet and socialise and a place where our Jewish relatives and friends can come and socialise as well.

by Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

"I plan to use my guesthouse as the basis of such a centre and I also have support for this from Olympic leaders who have said how nice it will be to have somewhere for Jewish Olympic athletes and officials to go and relax."

"Many will be coming from Florida and others from France and Germany and right across Europe."

"Pig on a plate will not be offered but smoked salmon and our own free range eggs will be because we are strictly vegetarian and fish is an exception."

Lord Mendoza added that the guesthouse has a large secluded rear garden complete with marquee which can cater for 60 people which would provide a facility for both small and large gatherings of Jewish people and their friends.

He said: "I envisage doing a number of barbecues with an occasional abbreviated Friday night religious service."

"This is the Jurassic Coast and this area has the oldest synagogues in the country, so it is perhaps fitting that a Jewish community is being revived in Weymouth because such communities no longer live in big cities and towns."

"I believe that Weymouth has a great future as a forward thinking town. It has so many natural assets that appeal to sensible people with some of the most beautiful architecture you could wish to see while Portland has such a sense of atmosphere.

"A Jewish community will thrive in such surroundings. We have made a start and we will build on that."

Anyone who would like more information should contact Lord Mendoza on 01305-782133.

Relatives of Henry Bolton

PEOPLE are being asked to help find the next of kin of a man who died in Weymouth.

Henry Bolton died at Dorset County Hospital in Dorchester on May 7th just two days before his 56th birthday.

His home address was in East Street, Weymouth, and the coroner is making inquiries into the death which is not being treated as suspicious.

Coroner's Officer Bryan Tucker said: "I believe that Henry had family, three sisters and one brother, living in the Blackburn area."

"I need to find Henry's next of kin so that I can finalise my enquiries on behalf of the coroner."

"I'd be grateful if any of Henry's family could contact me as soon as possible on 01305 223033."

Floral tributes to lost fishermen

Searchers had been hoping that the missing men might somehow have been on board the vessel's life raft, but investigations found it still attached to the wreck.

Loss of the three fishermen has stunned the seaside community and tributes were led by Weymouth and Portland Mayor and Mayoress Graham and Mary Winter who laid flowers on Weymouth's harbour wall at the Purbeck Isle's mooring.

Mr Winter said: "This incident is a tragedy for the town and our thoughts are with the crew's families."

The stricken fishing vessel had left harbour to whelk, but it could not be contacted for several hours and a search was launched at 6pm on May 17th when it had failed to return to Weymouth.

The Coastguard helicopter based at Portland searched fishing grounds, lifeboats from Weymouth and Lyme Regis joined the search as did the type 42 destroyer HMS York, the Royal Fleet Auxiliary Wave Ruler and the US Navy supply vessel 2nd Lt John P Bobo while the National Coastwatch Institution at Portland Bill also tried to locate the men.

Mr McFarlane's body was found a day later and the general search was called off last Saturday (May 19th) after the life raft was found and coastguards said there was no hope of finding them alive.

Air your views on Local Plan

CONTROVERSIAL proposals for large housing developments in Bridport, Sherborne and parts of Weymouth will feature in a draft local plan being published in early June.

Local people will be asked to have their say about the proposals and to shape the future of West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland at special drop-in sessions in June and July.

The draft Local Plan sets out how both areas will be developed until 2031 and has been produced jointly by West Dorset District Council and Weymouth and Portland Borough Council.

The document sets out a long term planning strategy to meet future housing, employment and leisure needs.

It covers important issues like where housing could be built, how the economy can be boosted and what infrastructure, such as schools and play areas, may be needed.

It also looks at how climate change can be tackled, the environment protected and how future developments can be made more sustainable.

The drop-in sessions will be held so local residents, people who work or do business in either area or anyone else interested can go along and find out more.

The drop-in sessions will be held between 1pm-7pm at: Dorchester, Corn Exchange on June 26th; Portland, St George's Centre, Reforme on June 27th; Weymouth, Redlands Sports Hub on June 28th; Crossways, Youth and Community Centre on July 3rd; Weymouth, Community Fire Station on July 4th; Chickerell, Willowbed Hall on July 5th; and Weymouth, Pavilion Ocean Room on July 10th.

At the Weymouth Pavilion event residents will also be able to find out about the draft Weymouth Town Centre Conservation Area Character Appraisal.

For more details call 01305 838000.

Comments about the draft Local Plan must be received by July 27th.

Comments will then be considered by councillors.

The draft Local Plan will be available from June 1st. To view it online visit www.dorset-foryou.com/newlocalplan/west/weymouth.

No Excuse team continue to catch careless and inconsiderate drivers

A WOMAN caught doing 44mph on a 30mph road at Littlemoor, Weymouth, told police she had just been keeping up with the flow of traffic...despite being the only car on the road!

It was just the latest example in a catalogue of comments which has astounded officers on the Force's "no excuse" team tackling the problem of bad and inconsiderate drivers.

They processed another 957 offences in March to bring the total of offenders in the first quarter to 4,067.

Safety cameras accounted for 2,079 offences with the rest being officer issued tickets including 250 for distraction offences such as using a mobile phone, taking photos and using an iPod while driving.

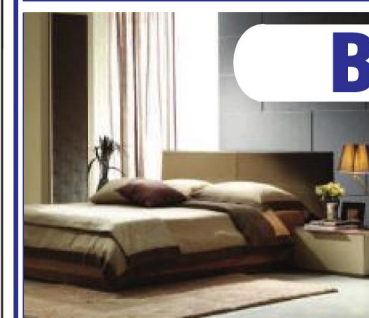

No Excuse project manager Brian Austin said: "We are continually amazed at the thought processes of some of the bad and inconsiderate drivers on Dorset's roads.

"Although the 'no excuse' message is widely known in Dorset, nationally and even internationally, we still have drivers travelling on our roads that show time and again that they have no concern for other road users and pedestrians.

"The Dorset Road Safe partners will continue to make full use of the 'no excuse' team, traffic officers, safer neighbourhood teams, safety camera vans and the responsible drivers using our roads to catch those that think the law does not apply to them."

Charity pedaller on his way

Charles aims to cycle from Land's End to John O'Groats

by Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

A FATHER of two is tackling a gruelling 978-mile trip from Land's End to John O'Groats for two charities.

Charles McCaig, 50, of Wyke Regis, Weymouth, set off from Land's End a few days ago and hopes to complete his marathon ride on Tuesday, May 29th, the day before his 51st birthday.

Charles told the View: "I work as a criminal justice drug worker, often coming into contact with chaotic drug users.

"Over the past couple of years I have taken up an interest in cycling due to a group of us deciding to raise funds for the Royal National College for the Blind in Hereford, a college that my daughter Stefanie used to attend because she is registered blind.

"Since my last charity ride almost two years ago it has been my intention to complete another charity event and over the past year I gave a great deal of thought to the event and what charities should be involved.

"It became apparent that Land's End to John O'Groats was my ultimate challenge.

"The charities were always going to be Deafblind UK and Julia's House because of their distinctive roles with the dual disability of Deafblind and Julia's House being Dorset's only children's hospice.

"I am cycling alone with my wife and daughters in a support car and I hope to complete the ride in 11 days which is an average of just under 90 miles per day."

Before he set off Charles had intensified his training, being in the gym five days a week, cycling most days and losing 2kg in weight in the last month.

He said: "I want to raise the profile of my cycle ride and hopefully increase the opportunity of raising sponsorship funds for these extremely worthwhile charities."

Anyone who would like to support Charles by making a donation can do so via Justgiving.com/Charles.McCaig0 for those wishing to give to Julia's House and via Justgiving.com/Charles.McCaig1 for those wish-cams and other footage, doing a spot of pond-dipping and finding out about 'what lurks beneath', or holding their own community events at the picnic area."

Weymouth Wetlands information officer Luke Phillips said: "We have opened the whole place up because we wanted it to be multi-functional, but people will still be able to just go for a stroll and get much better views of wildlife such as warblers and wild-fowl and some of our iconic birds including bearded tits, marsh harriers, kingfishers and hope-fully even bitterns.

"We'll also be holding more in-depth events including educational sessions for schools and community groups where people can learn about the ecology of the reserves and about habitats and wildlife in other parts of Weymouth and Portland."

The centre, which was completed using a variety of backing including the EU, Natural England and the Big Lottery Fund, was officially opened by Weymouth and Portland Mayor Graham Winter helped by children from Broadmayne First School.

Mr Winter said: "It is magic, really good. The centre is state of the art, the wildlife video feeds are fascinating and it is also nice to see other improvements in the reserve. They have done a lot of hard work."

RSPB South West regional public affairs manager Peter Exley said: "This centre is absolutely brilliant. It has been three years in the planning and the result is something visitors and residents are really going to love."

RSPB South West regional director Tony Richardson said: "It is charming, absolutely lovely, a new way for people coming to Radipole Lake to start their visit, particularly if the weather is wet which it was today!"

The work follows a two-year restoration project completed last winter, creating a mosaic of habitats and revitalising Radipole Lake from roadside café to five-star hotel and restaurant for wildlife.

THIS WOMAN NEVER GAVE UP

CHRONICALLY ill from childhood and unable to find relief in 19th century conventional medicine, she sought help from many alternative treatments. Her experiments with homeopathy convinced her that there was an undeniable relationship between mind and body. She also studied the Bible constantly, believing that it held the ultimate answers she was seeking about life, God, and her own purpose for living.

MANY of her ideas ran counter to the currents of 19th century society, medicine and religion. Undaunted by her lack of formal education, her lack of resources, and the lack of many basic rights afforded to women of her day, she persevered. She took up desperate cases of illness and healed them. She wrote Science and Health and published it. She lectured, preached and established a teaching college, founded a church, started several magazines and a Publishing Society and, at the age of eighty-seven founded a daily newspaper The Christian Science Monitor.

WEYMOUTH and Portland has announced spectacular plans to stage a vibrant evening celebration on Weymouth Beach to welcome the Olympic torch relay on Thursday, July 12th.

The announcement came after the torch relay started from Land's End in Cornwall.

The beach celebration will enable thousands of people in Weymouth and Portland and the surrounding areas to enjoy a variety of entertainment staged by the torch relay presenting partners Coca-Cola, Lloyds TSB and Samsung and Weymouth and Portland council.

The free event will be ticketed and people wanting to watch the entertainment and events taking place will be required to apply in advance for a wristband, which will allow them access on to the beach site.

Wristbands can be applied for online at www.dorsetforyou.com/2012torchtickets from 7am on Tuesday, June 12th. Those who succeed will be asked to collect their wristbands from a choice of six Tourist Information Centres around Weymouth and Portland and West Dorset before 4pm on Friday, June 29th.

Gates to the beach site will open at 5pm on Thursday, July 12th with the entertainment scheduled to begin at 5.30pm and the Olympic Flame due to arrive at 7.16pm.

The last torchbearer of the day will arrive at the beach by rowing gig and will light a celebration cauldron on stage at the event which will enable the Olympic Flame to be seen by the audience.

During the two-and-a-half hour show, there will be two ten-minute slots of locally-programmed entertainment, including a drumming spectacular involving local children from the Moving Tides carnival, the bands Weapons of Sound, Magic Drum Orchestra and B-Sharp plus the audience.

The three presenting partners will each provide 20 minutes of exciting entertainment for the event including performances from chart-topping rapper Wretch 32 from Coca-Cola and dance act Britain's Got Talent finalists Twist & Pulse from Samsung. Lloyds TSB will be bringing stunning acrobatic performances to the show.

The event will be followed by a firework display at 9.30pm over Weymouth Bay.

Weymouth and Portland council management committee chairman Councillor Mike Goodman said: "We are really looking forward to welcoming the Olympic flame to Weymouth and Portland and are delighted that we can now announce plans for the evening celebrations on July 12th on Weymouth Beach. The evening promises to be a spectacular occasion with more than two hours of family fun and entertainment."

More information about applying for wristbands and the event itself is available by visiting www.dorsetforyou.com/2012torchtickets.

THE beach site will be fenced off and access to it will be closely controlled. Only those who have applied for and are wearing wristbands will be allowed inside the site. There will not be any areas surrounding the site where people without tickets will be able to watch from or to gather.

Children under the age of 14 will need to be accompanied by an adult. Site capacity is 12,500 people and dogs will not be permitted inside except for guide dogs and service dogs.

People will be able to apply for up to five wristbands per household and these will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis. They will need to bring proof of address when collecting their wristbands. Any duplicate applications from the same household will be void.

Those successful in securing wristbands for the event will be required to collect them from one of the following Tourist Information Centres before 4pm on Friday June 29th. They will be asked to choose which TIC they would like to collect them from at the time of booking.

TIC sites include Antelope Walk, Dorchester DT1 1BE, open 9am-5pm Mon-Sat; Town Hall, Bridport DT6 3LF, open 9am-5pm Mon-Sat; Digby Road, Sherborne DT9 3NL, open 9am-5pm Mon-Sat; Church Street, Lyme Regis DT7 3BS, open 10am-5pm Mon-Sat and 10am-4pm Sun; Pavilion Theatre, The Esplanade, Weymouth, DT4 8ED, open 9.30am-5pm daily and Portland Visitor Centre, The Lighthouse, Portland Bill, Portland DT5 2JT, open 11am-5pm daily.

Anyone without internet access may call Weymouth and Portland council's customer services team on 01305 838000 for help.

Torches and banners will be on display

CHILDREN had a chance to make various items including their own Olympic torch during a workshop at the Wild Weymouth Discovery Centre.

The event was organised by Let's Make It and spokesman Julie Hursthouse said: "First we took them out for a walk to collect feathers, twigs and anything that could be used to decorate their torch."

"Then we held the workshop to make torches and also banners and flags with special hand-made insects on them."

"Everything made on the day was then displayed and hung from the Centre's rafters ready to welcome the Olympic torch when it comes to Weymouth and Portland on July 12th-13th."

Overcoming problems in race to help others

and Dennis Jackson

MORE than 150 disabled people, carers, friends and supporters took part in the annual Race for Equality.

It was the first time the event had been held in Weymouth, two previous races having been held in Bournemouth.

Weymouth event committee chairman Bob Biddiss said: "It has been a fantastic response, really good."

"All money raised will go towards a new Access Dorset centre we hope to open in Weymouth later this year."

"It will let disabled and older people come in to get information about adaptations and aids, help with forms, home improvements such as bath lifts or rails, that sort of thing."

He added that it was "a very touching sight" to see so many people overcoming their own problems in a bid to help others.

He said: "Hopefully everyone's efforts today will help a lot more people in the future."

Those taking part in the race started from near the Pavilion and either went to the Jubilee Clock and back for the short route or further to Greenhill Gardens and back if they tackled the longer route.

Among those taking part was decorated Gulf War veteran and Access Dorset member Dennis Jackson who suffered a stroke in 2006.

He said it was the furthest he had walked since then and added: "I did the walk because I think the centre is a very good idea which will help many people in the Weymouth area."

"People often don't realise how difficult it is for the disabled to get about in modern life, so a centre which can help them make the most of their surroundings will be a boon."

The event also included everything from sections on healthy living and community transport to care and safety in the home, the Wessex Accessible Cycling Club, massage and the Dorset Mental Health Forum.

Weymouth and Portland

Mayor Graham Winter said: "I am very happy to support improving access for people with disabilities and for them to show us that they can do what we can with a bit of help."

Before the race started there was a moment's silence for everyone to remember the crew of the stricken vessel Purbeck Isle.

AS I SEE IT ...

by Geoff Treleven

Skillful restoration

There are occasions when expert treatment by a specialist is necessary. My own Bible is an example.

It was beginning to come apart and needed to be rebound. Simply buying a new one would not be the same as restoring the old with all my notes and underlining made over the years.

Age, of course, does cause deterioration of many things. When a special painting by an artist of old begins to lose its original glory, it needs far more than a quick wipe with a damp cloth! The required restoration is highly skilled when you are dealing with something totally irreplaceable.

When a person comes to faith in latter years, there may be regrets over a past wasted life. There are also occasions when the effects of a sinful life are only too evident. Where one's body has been damaged by a dangerous lifestyle, some suffering may continue.

The Bible says much about the devastation caused by locusts. A plague was to be feared. But God did promise to restore His people where there was genuine repentance. He is the only one who can offer total forgiveness and what a blessing that He does. (See Joel 2:25)

Volunteers needed to protect little terns

RSPB Dorset is appealing for volunteers to help with a very special conservation project on Chesil Beach.

Staff need help to protect a breeding colony of little terns which is the only one of its kind in the south west.

These small, graceful seabirds, which migrate from west Africa each spring, were once numerous but over the past 100 years have suffered huge declines nationally and now, despite signs of recovery, still number only around 2,400 pairs.

Wardens are needed at the Ferrybridge site on the edge of Weymouth to take shifts guarding the birds and their eggs and the chicks when they hatch, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The main threats are predators such as hedgehogs, foxes and crows as well as accidental trampling or disturbance by humans.

RSPB species protection officer John Dadds said: "After many years of decline, the last two years have seen the best productivity ever at this colony with 18 breeding pairs producing 12 fledglings last year.

"Much of this success is down to the time and effort put in by RSPB staff and dedicated volunteers applying management techniques successfully used at Great Yarmouth in Norfolk."

Preparations for the fourth year of the Chesil Bank Little Tern Recovery Project are already in place and wardening facilities have been greatly improved with a purpose-built hide replacing the tiny fisherman's tent used last year.

by Harry Walton

John is hoping that the improved facilities will encourage more people to volunteer their time to watch over the birds and protect them from the impact of disturbance and predation.

He added: "Apart from the shelter and the comfort it provides, the hide is also situated just a few metres from the colony and provides fantastic views of the terns nesting, which most people only get to see from hundreds of metres away."

Anyone who can help this conservation success story is asked to contact Helen Booker on 01392 453762 or email helen.booker@rspb.org.uk

■ DAVE Lancaster (front left) with Weymouth and Portland Mayor Graham Winter in the Nothe Fort for the official launch of the Dorset Tour

Vintage tour of Dorset

AN eighty-year-old car will have pride of place at the 24th Dorset Tour of vintage vehicles.

The 1932 Austin Swallow will be taking part in the May 27th event organised by Weymouth Vehicle Preservation Society.

President Dave Lancaster said: "Bookings are up this year on 2011 so we are very pleased.

"So far more than 30 cars will be taking part and we expect a lot more to register on the day."

He added that the tour will assemble at Lodmoor Country Park in Weymouth before setting off on a journey which will take in Portland, Abbotsbury, Broadmayne and back to Weymouth.

Mr Lancaster said: "This year's tour will be in aid of Weldmar Hospicecare Trust and the Nothe Fort."

■ MEMBERS of Scallywags child care centre in Weymouth ride some of the resort's award-winning beach donkeys to help Mike Goodman publicise the leaflet

A summer to remember!

A NEW leaflet has been issued highlighting the range of activities for local people and visitors during this summer's Olympic sailing events in Weymouth and Portland.

A Summer to Remember has been produced in response to feedback that some local people are unaware of the programme of events in the borough during the Games, many of which are free and most of which are aimed at families.

The leaflet includes information about a range of events and attractions, including the torch relay, Weymouth and Portland Live with its two giant screens on the beach, the Bayside festival with live music, extreme sports displays and local food and Maritime Mix, Dorset's largest creative celebration featuring more than 80 events.

Also detailed are the Weymouth Beach sports arena where people can try sports from rugby to kayaking, the ICCI360 Arena with live music and dance performances, 360 degree film screenings and Weymouth Sea Life Tower offering dramatic views of the area.

Weymouth and Portland council's management committee chairman Councillor Mike Goodman said: "We have never seen the like of such a feast of events and this summer promises to be among the biggest and best in the history of Weymouth and Portland."

"Whether you love sport, enjoy live music or just want to soak up the Olympic atmosphere, Weymouth and Portland offers locals and visitors a once-in-a-lifetime chance to experience the London 2012 Games by the sea this summer. And many of the activities are absolutely free."

A Summer to Remember is available from tourist information centres and other local outlets. For more information about the events in Dorset during the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Sailing events you can also go to www.dorsetforyou.com/sailing2012.

Beach among best in country

WEYMOUTH Central Beach underlined its place among the best in the country by winning Quality Coast Award status for 2012.

Keep Britain Tidy's prestigious award recognises beaches across England which have high standards of beach management.

The Weymouth and Portland council-managed beach secured the status after presenting and maintaining a clean, attractive beach and bathing waters.

Leisure and tourism spokesman

by Harry Walton
hdsalton@yahoo.co.uk

Councillor Andy Blackwood said: "It is fantastic that our beach has been recognised as being one of the best in the country. The beach plays a huge role in attracting visitors to Weymouth as well as being enjoyed by residents."

"It is especially great that we can showcase the award on the backdrop of the Olympic and Paralympic Games and I hope it will boost tourism for years to come."

Weymouth Central Beach will host the Weymouth and Portland Live Site during this summer's Games. The 15,000 capacity venue will be free of charge and contain two giant screens projecting all the latest Olympic action.

There will also be an interactive sporting arena next to the live site where people can try their hand at lots of different beach sports including cricket, football, volleyball, kayaking and sailing.

Authors unite to meet the public

LOCAL authors enjoyed a get-together at Imagine Books, in Weymouth.

Bookshop owner Ann Newman, who is very supportive of local books and has many titles, said: "This is the second year the event has been held and it's proven to be very popular and worthwhile for Weymouth and I thank all the authors for coming."

Members of the public were able to chat with the authors and buy signed copies of their books

Crossways Travel
Supporting the Local Communities

A Brief History Of Crossways Travel

Crossways Travel Group was started in September 2010 by a local couple living in the village of Crossways. They started because they believed there was a need for enhanced local transport in the villages of Crossways, Broadmayne, Puddletown & Tolpuddle. As time passed they realised just how popular they were becoming and expanded to pick up in Bere Regis, followed by Dorchester and Weymouth and soon afterwards Wyke Regis and Portland. Crossways Travel Group proudly made various charitable donations to many local organisations from any profits accrued.

In April this year the name was changed to Crossways Travel and the group was changed into a company because of its popularity. Its aim is to offer the same quality tours at value for money prices without compromising on standards. All coach tours whether day tours or Holidays are operated to the same high standard with an experienced driver, luxury coach, and a knowledgeable Tour Manager. Crossways Travel say they aim to give you an experience nothing short of exceptional & judging by their feedback they keep to their word!

If you are looking for coach hire for your group or society they can also arrange this, with the same high standards and you can even have a tour manager or alternatively, you can book your group on one of their tours and get a generous group discount.

Crossways Travel offer high quality, fully escorted Day Tours and Holidays from Portland.

Wyke Regis, Weymouth, Dorchester and the local villages at prices hard to beat. They also operate a free mailing list & brochure request. Call them today on 01305 851697 or check out their website on www.crosswaystravel.co.uk or visit your local tourist information office for a brochure.

Good samaritan

DETECTIVES are appealing for a good Samaritan who helped a woman allegedly being attacked in Weymouth to come forward and talk to them.

The incident involving a man and a woman happened at around 4.15pm on Thursday May 17th in Clifton Place, Weymouth.

The victim, a 21-year-old local woman, was not injured as a result of the attack.

PC Robert Hoskins, of Weymouth Police, said: "During this assault, I understand that a passer-by intervened causing the man to stop what he was doing and walk away."

"We would like to trace the man who intervened as soon as possible as he maybe able to explain exactly what happened. I would also like to speak to anyone who may have witnessed the assault."

Anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 17/333 or call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Isle of Wight walk

WEYMOUTH man Chris Bill and friends Rob Thomas, Terry Child and Steve Sheriff have tackled a walk round the Isle of Wight in aid of Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

Chris organised the walk as a way of raising money for charity after his mother began chemotherapy treatment.

He said it took himself and his friends four days with Steve and Rob managing to complete the full route of 67 miles. Unfortunately Chris had to give up after 55 miles due to injury along with Terry.

Chris said: "Now the walk is over and I have the blisters to prove it. It was a great team effort, thanks guys. In total I estimate that between us we walked about 214 miles."

Weldmar major events fundraiser Sue Leighton said: "Thank you for supporting Weldmar's work in this very challenging way. We really do appreciate it. Take care of those blisters!"

Anyone wishing to support their fundraising effort can still donate online at www.justgiving.com/iow-walk.

Could you play the fiddler?

WEYMOUTH Operatic Society urgently needs people to come forward and take roles as villagers in its new production of Fiddler on the Roof.

The show requires a very large cast and the society just doesn't have enough current members to support the concept.

Spokesman Cate Pullin said they had already started rehearsals for the Pavilion show in September.

She added: "We will be holding open auditions for children from the age of eight to 17 on Saturday, June 23rd at 10.15am. They do not need to learn anything in preparation but may be asked to sing a simple song such as 'Happy Birthday'. We are looking for village children but also require two or three older girls to play the young daughters of Tevye and Golde.

"We are hoping to attract some additional adult members now so they can begin rehearsing with us immediately in the hope that they may wish to audition with the adult members on Sunday, June 24th from 1pm.

"We are hoping to find men and women aged between 18 and 80 to play the parts of villagers, Russians and the part of the constable which is a non-singing role. Anyone who has considered being on stage in a musical will get a lot of enjoyment and satisfaction from being part of a production. Being able to hold a tune would be a bonus but not essential because vocal ability tends to improve with practice and confidence."

The society also requires the 'Fiddler' who has a non-speaking, non-singing role. He or she needs to be able to play or mime playing on the violin and be unafraid of heights!

Fiddler on the Roof is a musical set in Tsarist Russia in 1905. The story centres on Tevye, the father of five daughters, and his attempts to maintain his family and Jewish religious traditions while outside influences encroach upon their lives.

He must cope both with the strong-willed actions of his three older daughters—each one's choice of husband moves further away from the customs of his faith—and with the edict of the Tsar that evicts the Jews from their village.

Cate said: "Adults are welcome to turn up at our rehearsal rooms on any Thursday evening from 7.30pm at Hope Church near Brewers Quay."

Vintage bike run

MOTORCYCLING history took to the roads of Weymouth for an historic rally.

The Vintage Motorcycle Club was holding its 45th Weymouth run with up to 200 machines taking part. Organiser Ray Dickinson said: "Out oldest machine, a Triumph TT roadster, was built in 1912, so this is its centenary year.

"It was quite a sight because it has never been restored and is in its original condition. It is just the way it was when it took to the road two years before the First World War."

Motorcyclists tackled a 60-mile route taking them out to Cerne Abbas, down the Piddle Valley and back to Weymouth.

Weymouth and Portland Mayor Graham Winter later presented prizes for various awards ranging from the oldest machine to best woman rider.

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Monster raving loonies?

PEOPLE have become very suspicious of politicians in recent months.

Certainly the antics on Weymouth and Portland council over harbour walls, the Olympics and various developments have done nothing to dispel the impression of politicians who struggle to think ahead and who can't or won't listen.

But sometimes local councillors are not quite as easy to pigeonhole as you might think.

I was chatting away during the recent elections with one councillor able to enjoy proceedings because they weren't up for re-election.

One line of conversation led to another and, with a sweep of their hand to where votes were being counted, the councillor revealed that they had once polled 24 votes...as a candidate for the Monster Raving Loony Party.

This seemingly encouraged them to make a serious start in politics because they got hooked on the process and the ins and outs of the local council.

Judging by current times it could be argued that a great many of that person's former political colleagues successfully made it on to the council!

Watch out for the liquid drought

HOW fortunate for us that the Environment Agency has announced that Dorset has been removed from the country's drought area.

Without their benevolence we might have missed the change because there have been so few signs of recent wet weather unless you count the spate of drownings and all the boats being built in people's gardens.

In six weeks Weymouth and Portland went from temperatures up to 75F (that's 24C in new money) with ground baked like iron to temperatures in the low 40s (7-8C) and ground transformed to the consistency of porridge.

Day after day people went round heads bowed under umbrellas, battered by downpours not seen since Noah was around packing them in two by two.

Rivers and streams flooded, homes and businesses were left underwater and sporting events were devastated by conditions which are only now showing signs we might get a bit of summer sunshine.

Incredibly this part of the country remained in the drought area despite the wettest April since records began in 1880 and it has only just been taken out of it.

So I urge you all to keep an eye on future Environment Agency bulletins so we are kept up to date with important conditions such as knowing that when it gets dark its nighttime. After all, we need the agency to broadcast the less obvious things in life.

Enough to blow your socks off!

ALL you cooks out there should take note of my mistake and treat certain types of chilli powder with the respect they deserve.

I ran out of chilli and went and bought some more at Helen's Famous Wholefood Store, carelessly dismissing the "extra hot" part of the label on the jar.

That night's evening meal was very nearly the last for my son and I as he knocked up a pasta dish with just a teaspoon of this new powder plus a few grains which had escaped my attempts to put it into my chilli jar.

The resultant meal was like eating a volcano!

I lost all feeling in my lips, my son began to melt with sweat streaming down his face and for a while I was convinced that my tongue had caught fire.

We will try the chilli again. Perhaps a quarter of a teaspoon might be safe. Take heed

...and mind that painting doesn't fall on your head!

ART means different things to different people, but one Weymouth painter is having to cope with adverse criticism of his work from an unexpected quarter.

His large paintings are quite striking in their detail, subject and dramatic use of colour particularly gold, so it isn't surprising that they can take thousands of hours to produce and are keenly sought after by buyers.

So when he began to add the final touches to his latest work and started to consider where the painting might initially hang he was startled to receive a comment that his choice was being questioned.

He'd never had a problem with his paintings before. Indeed there was competition to hang them rather than turn them away.

So who could it be that was suddenly not so sure about seeing them displayed.

Yes, you've guessed it.....our old friends the Health and Safety Executive.

Regular readers of this column will have seen me highlight a few of H&E's more aberrant decisions including a ban on pins to secure commemorative poppies, so you shouldn't really be too surprised to hear that even art isn't safe from H&E's clutches.

Apparently the painter was informed that his regular choice of position above a staircase posed a safety hazard to people going up and down the stairs who might be hit on the head if the painting suddenly came loose or decided to leap off the wall.

Paintings have hung in this position for years without a problem, but the painter is now sadly being forced to seriously consider what he wants to do with his latest work.

Hopefully common sense will prevail although this is the Health and Safety Executive we are talking about.

Malabar Trading

WARMER weather is finally here and Malabar Trading is the place to go if you are looking for some lovely cotton clothing or nightwear. There are blockprinted cotton tops and tunics, kaftans and sarongs. The extensive range of nightwear includes cotton nightdresses, pyjamas and kimonos.

For the home there is a new selection of cotton quilts, bedspreads and tablecloths. Cotton quilts are perfect for warm summer nights and many of the quilts have handprinted intricate Mughal designs. Attractive cotton hand-woven dhurries in many colours and designs offer a relatively inexpensive floor covering with maximum impact.

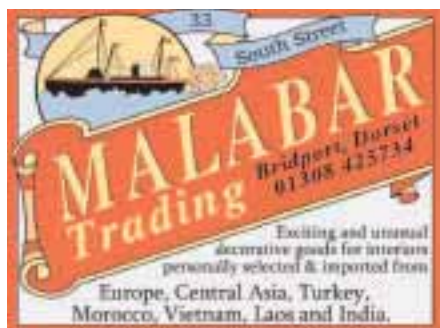

There are also new designs in hand-embroidered suzani cushions and linen block-printed cushion covers from India.

Voile and organdy curtains, cotton duvet covers and cotton blockprinted cushion covers are also perfect for a summer makeover.

If you are looking for wedding gifts here are a few ideas : Italian marquetry frames, French glassware and ceramic cookware, stylish Turkish towels, blue and white Japanese bowls or even a beautiful suzani cushion.

Welcome to Bridport...

Featured on this page are some of the fantastic businesses that Bridport and Westbay have to offer. We are urging you to shop local and shop in Bridport and Westbay. Bridport is a friendly historic market town with national and local shops standing side by side in the main streets. Many local shops are long established family businesses and there are a wide variety of retail, manufacturing and service businesses located on the trading estates around the town. Bridport has a large artistic community and artists can be found working in the many small workshops and studios throughout the town.

ABC Blinds

ABC Blinds have operated in Bridport and served the people of West Dorset for 35 years, we still do business the traditional way, where quality and service are extremely important.

We have never used pushy salesmen or gimmicks, just good old fashioned HONESTY; we will not sell you a blind you do not need or is inappropriate for your window space. We only sell quality products at a good price all year round, eliminating the need for pretentious sales or discounts that do not really exist.

We are members of the Guild of master Craftsmen and adhere to and exceed the high standards expected. From conception to completion, ABC Blinds is the name you can trust.

Jaxsons Deli & Gift Store

Jaxsons Deli is described by one customer as 'a hidden jewel in Bridport'

Shaz and Jackie will soon be entering their fourth year in the shop and continue to build on their strong ethos of local, West Country and UK products. This is reflected in their wonderful cheese selection, chutneys and jams, biscuits, olives, dressings, chocolates, teas and coffees.

Their café boasts a delightful menu of breakfasts using organic free range eggs and Denhay bacon, light lunches to suit every taste and of course their fantastic homemade cakes – baked every day on the premises. Their selection of drinks include roasted West Country coffee, a variety of teas (including Dorset Tea) as well as a selection of cold drinks including milkshakes made with Purbeck ice cream.

Jaxsons have again been nominated for Deli of the Year ... and you can still vote for them either 'in house' or online, until the end of May. Last year Jaxsons received a 'Highly Commended' Award – one of only 19 delis to receive this in the UK – something Shaz and Jackie are both very proud of.

If you haven't visited Jaxsons ... why not pop in for some local produce, a coffee and cake and don't forget to check out their great gifts and hampers – you will be sure to be greeted with a warm welcome and always free smiles.

Smith & Smith

THERE really is no need to travel miles and fight the crowds to find the ideal gift for men or women. Simply pop into Smith & Smith Ltd in Bridport to see the incredible selection of contemporary, classic clothing and accessories they have available.

From men's cord trousers in a multitude of shades, to Viyella and other warm shirts in subtle country colours. The shelves are full of beautiful pullovers in various weights, some fine to wear under coats, while others are chunky. There is also a good choice of jackets and coats, but the 'star of the show' is their beautiful Donegal Tweed overcoat - it will become a family heirloom, so why not treat your Dad!

Sally's Cook Shop

SALLY'S Cook Shop, in Barrack Street, Bridport opened its door for trading on 4th May, after several weeks of re-decoration and shop fitting. The owner Sally Farrar, has created a light and airy space within the shop front area of this lovely old listed building in Barrack Street, found next door to The Tiger Inn.

Sally has re-located to Bridport from her hometown in West Sussex last December, to be with her partner Martin, who also runs a local business in the town, Bridport Coachworks.

Sally, a self confessed foodie, has always had a love for cooking, and back in West Sussex over the years has "catered" for many events, large and small, and after moving to Dorset, has gone on to discover food heaven in a number of gorgeous café's, restaurants, eateries and shops in the local area. When the opportunity arose recently to rent the shop premises on what was once the former site for Bridport's kitchen shop, it became clear after talking to the local community that there was a huge need in the town to open a cook shop, so Sally's Cook Shop was born!

Sally is stocking quality cookware and glassware, Dartington Crystal and Scanpan, being just a couple of high end brand names, along with the more affordable everyday kitchen essentials. The shop also has Martin Wincoscombe design gifts, ie

Kitchen chalk boards, clocks and hanging hooks, professional artisan bread baking "starter kit" equipment, cane bannetons, lames, and baking stones. Sally is aiming to give a personal friendly shopping experience to everyone who comes through the door, and is very keen to meet all customers needs and help with requests as much as possible.

BRIDPORT CENTRE FOR FOOT HEALTH

are holding an Open Day on Saturday the 26th May 2012 between 10am- 3pm. We believe in total foot wellbeing and would like everyone to come along, sample some of our 'Kind2Feet' foot care products (made in Bridport by aromatherapist Olivia Chapman) and learn how to use them at home, find out about what we do as Chiropodists/ Podiatrists and Foot Care Assistants and the wide variety of treatments that we offer. We want you to be inspired on how you can get feet fit for summer!

We are looking for volunteers (men and women) to come in and have a FREE treatment on the open day saturday. It doesn't matter if you haven't been to us before but the volunteers must be willing to have others watching and possibly asking questions while the treatment is taking place.

Treatments available are:

- Lower leg and foot massage
- Dead sea mineral clay foot mask
- 'Kind2feet' treat
- Toe nail shaping and cuticle treatment
- Paraffin warm wax treatment
- 'Just Heels'- a dry, rough heel smoothing treatment
- Frankinsence and palmarosa clay foot mask
- 'Just For Him' Feet Treat- using our new 'Macho!' Kind2feet foot soak, scrub and dry skin balm

We are also looking for a volunteer with thickened nails or one thickened nail to come along so we can demonstrate what we can do to improve their appearance.

*If you are interested in sampling a FREE treatment at the open day, come in and see us or call us on

Boutique café in the heart of Dorchester

THE Loft Café on Antelope Walk in Dorchester has an ethos to provide freshly made food with seasonal ingredients, and locally obtained where possible. All food is made at the café, except for the bread which is sourced from an artisan bakery, and the menu changes daily. This ensures that ingredients are always at their best and that there is minimum waste.

The Loft has a distinctly

European feel as customers can enjoy something to eat or a glass of wine at any time throughout the day. Delicious food, wine and coffee are available at all times, and the ambience is always relaxed and inviting.

Coffee lovers will be thrilled to discover that Illy coffee has been chosen specifically for its freshness and superior taste. The brand is also truly fair to its producers as they buy direct, and also boast some impressive environmental credentials.

This unique concept is the vision of owner Sally Dixon, who has live overseas and travelled extensively throughout Africa and Asia, bringing a wonderful mix of world flavours and traditional coffee shop values to Dorchester. The Loft's Supper Club begins on Tuesday 3rd April with a Nonya themed evening.

This will then run on the first Tuesday of each month.

So for a delicious slice of home-made cake and a superb cup of coffee, a light flavoursome lunch with a glass of wine, or a quiet moment with a cup of green tea, The Loft Café is the place to be.

Serenity Nail & Beauty of Dorchester are celebrating 7 years on the High Street! and the best nails in town!

Serenity is an established nail and beauty salon in the heart of Dorchester.

Sharon Page owner and her dedicated team of therapists have worked hard to achieve a large loyal client base. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our clients for there continued business and support.

We offer our clients a friendly, relaxed and professional environment. We take pride in offering a consistent, quality service and sound advice with the assurance that the treatments are being performed by a qualified specialist, trained to the highest of industry standards. Our clients enjoy the ambiance of our luxury beauty rooms, which have proved very popular and we have plans in the coming summer months to launch our new third beauty room. We look forward to welcoming new clients to experience the warm relaxed atmosphere at Serenity and meet our therapists. We are pride ourselves on our nail techniques using the following systems: shellac/gelish, silk, acrylic and minx and a vast range of the very popular OPI polishes, keeping up with the latest fashions and trends.

Our clients and new customers will be pleased to hear we will be increasing our opening hours to include Mondays and one extra late evening

Now available at Serenity Beauty, the DermaCo Pro System offers the very latest in facial technology, combining non-surgical face lift and microdermabrasion as well as a further 4 treatments using the same machine.

Thermotherapy is the first procedure used during your treatment, essential for preparing the skin for microdermabrasion. The warm disc application increases blood flow and opens pores to allow for easier exfoliation and cleansing of the skin.

Diamond Tip Microdermabrasion is a mechanical exfoliation process, designed to treat all target areas by safely removing the top layers of the skin - this can benefit in many ways; treating pigmentation, sun damage, fine lines and uneven texture. The procedure is quick and painless, encouraging the growth of new skin cells for a fresher appearance.

Ultrasound treatment penetrates deep into the dermal layers of the skin stimulating the cell membrane which in turn encourages cell expansion, improves circulation and relaxes the muscles. Ultrasound also encourages collagen production and stimulates the skin tissue to increase cell regeneration giving an overall more youthful, plumper appearance to the skin.

Biolift Microcurrent the ultimate non-surgical face lift procedure with visible results after just one treatment. It is a safe and painless, rejuvenating the skin; giving healthier, younger looking skin. Depending on the client's skin tone and muscle resistance levels, results can often be more dramatic.

LED Light Therapy following years of research into how our skin reacts to light, DermaCo can now offer this brand new treatment. The DermaCo Pro unit uses 4 main types of LED Light Therapy.

Cryotherapy is the last procedure used during your treatment, and once applied to the skins surface slows the absorption process, and closes the pores down.

This week's big screen releases

MEN IN BLACK III ^{PG}

AN ALIEN criminal kills the young Agent K in 1969, altering the timeline, changing the Agency and placing the Earth in danger. Veteran Agent J (Will Smith) must travel back in time to 1969 to before the murder and work with the young Agent K (Josh Brolin) to save him, the Agency, the Earth and humanity itself.

Also stars Alice Eve, Tommy Lee Jones, Jemaine Clement and Nicole Scherzinger.

THREE IS THE MAGIC NUMBER | Josh Brolin, Will Smith and Tommy Lee Jones in Men In Black III

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU'RE EXPECTING ^{12A}

A LOOK at love through the eyes of five interconnected couples experiencing the thrills and surprises of having a baby, and ultimately coming to understand the universal truth that no matter what you plan for, life doesn't always deliver what's expected. Inspired by the New York Times best seller of the same name.

Stars Cameron Diaz, Jennifer Lopez, Elizabeth Banks and Chris Rock.

PARENTHOOD | Matthew Morrison and Cameron Diaz in What to Expect When You're Expecting

MOONRISE KINGDOM ^{12A}

SET on an island off the coast of New England in the 1960s, as a young boy and girl fall in love they are moved to run away together. Various factions of the town mobilize to search for them and the town is turned upside down - which might not be such a bad thing. Stars Edward Norton, Bruce Willis, Bill Murray and Tilda Swinton.

An entrancing evening of eclectic beats

TRANSGLOBAL UNDERGROUND RETURN TO DORCHESTER

FLAMBOYANT, dramatic, eclectic and unexpected- are all terms which aptly describe Transglobal Underground- Award Winning pioneers of the dance fusion scene. This is a group with that rare quality of universal appeal- whether you fancy a manic night of foot-work and fancy, or you're a die-hard music enthusiast who's earned your festival stripes- this is the band for you! With a beat so full of life, Transglobal Underground are sure to get even the most confirmed wall-flower dancing the night away. Nights of dancing are in severely short supply in Dorchester - so don't miss this one! Book tickets now by calling Dorchester Tourist Information Centre 01305 267992, or visit www.wegotickets.com.

Transglobal Underground have remained a big name in the underground music scene since the early 90s and the release of their track "Temple Head", which quickly became an iconic club anthem. Since that time their influence has never faltered, nor has their flair for creative innovation. They bring together sounds and influences from around the world- from Kazakhstan to Venezuela, from Cape Town to Sri Lanka- with unrivaled panache. Their most recent album, "Stone Turntable" which was released last year continues their journey of musical exploration and innovation.

Transglobal Underground are returning to Dorchester Corn Exchange as part of the 5 days of tantalising events planned for the Dorchester Festival which will be running from the June 1st - 5th. Other highlights will include: an evening of comedy and curry with Hardeep Singh; cricket legend Henry Olonga; and co-creator of Hollywood blockbuster "Blood Diamond" soundtrack Modou N'Diaye. Don't forget there will also be a range of free events over the 5 days of the festival - chill out with locally produced food and music in the acoustic café, discover the secret cinema inside a huge piosaur dinosaur, marvel at the insect circus museum, see animation from around the world at the Plaza cinema - and don't miss the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations offered by Dorchester Town Council on Bank Holiday Tuesday!

Mike Denham's SpeakEasy Night at Dorset County Museum

SPEAKEASY | Mike Denham

ENCOURAGED by the large and enthusiastic audiences at his recent lunchtime concerts at Dorset County Museum, pianist Mike Denham is to bring his successful Speakeasy Nights to Dorchester.

Mike, at the grand piano in the Museum's splendid Victorian Hall, welcomes a guest of the highest calibre to play the great music of the Jazz Age. On this occasion, his guest is Steve Graham, one of the UK's top traditional jazz trumpeters and a fine ragtime mandolin player. The two men have a great rapport, which they will demonstrate in a programme of ragtime, jazz and boogie-woogie ranging from the melodic and refined to the hot and dirty!

Those who have attended one of Mike's concerts before will know how his entertaining stories about the music add spice to the presentation.

Mike Denham's SpeakEasy Night comes to Dorchester on Friday, June 8th at 8pm.

Music tickets are £12 from the Museum (01305 262 735). There will be a bar, and a tasty pre-show supper (£9.50) may also be booked (a week in advance please).

For more details on Mike visit www.mikedenham.co.uk

Jazz Dunn well

BRIDPORT'S only dedicated Dinner and Music Venue, 115 Club, will once again be show casing fabulous Jazz at their up coming gig tonight (May 24th). Julie Dunn, their premiere evening performer returns, offering contemporary and classic jazz, singing and performing classics and original pieces on keyboard whilst being accompanied by Ben Waghorn on saxophone and flute. Julie stunned the 115 Club guests on their premiere evening with classics such as the movie theme tune to Alfie, whilst incorporating tracks from her album "What's it all about". This time, and with the launch of her latest album "Out of this World" Julie is performing stunning Jazz influenced material with a contemporary twist.

Alan Pearlman, a Drama Professor & Jazz Critic from Canterbury University said "A stunning and moving musical exploration of life... Songs include great Jazz & Blues standards, plus well loved ballads - Shadow of Your Smile, Blame it on my Youth, Don't you know what Love is, All the things you are, Out of this world, But Beautiful, Not Like This, Well You Needn't... Together with a couple of self penned compositions...

"Her voice amazingly brings all these songs to vivid life and meaning, capturing the deep sadness and at the same time transcending it and turning it into an affirmation of human existence in spite of all its pain"

Pre-booking for dinner between 7.00pm and 8.00pm is essential, and guests should telephone on the day (between 2.00pm and 6.00pm) to confirm numbers in their party, at which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9.00pm.

For more information check out www.115club.com or www.facebook.com/115club

SHE'S OUT OF THIS WORLD | Julie Dunn will perform songs from her new album

WESSEX FOLK FESTIVAL AMERICAN FOLK NIGHT

WESSEX Folk Festival and Stompin' Dave Allen present a concert of American Folk music on Bank Holiday Monday 4th June at Weymouth Pavilion Theatre. The show will feature Adam Hurt from North Carolina, USA, Stompin' Dave and Kate Lissauer. A feast of banjo and fiddle music. The concert which will coincide with the Diamond Jubilee celebrations is in aid of The Marine Society and also MV Freedom.

Adam Hurt has placed in or won most of the major old-time music competitions in the US including Clifftop, Mount Airy, the Galax Fiddler's Convention and won the state banjo championships of Virginia, West Virginia, and Ohio, as well as the state fiddle championships of Virginia and Maryland. Deemed a "banjo virtuoso" by the Washington Post, Adam has fused several traditional old-time idioms to create his own elegantly innovative clawhammer banjo style. Adam will be performing with two other fantastic visiting musicians from the US Stephanie Coleman on fiddle and Beth Hartness on guitar.

A man who needs no introduction to regular View From readers is Bridport's own fiddle and banjo man Stompin' Dave Allen who will be performing alongside young banjo whiz Edward Bennett. Seventeen year old Edward from Penzance is the most promising young musician in the UK's old-time music scene. Ed was youth banjo champion at the prestigious Clifftop Festival, Virginia and the Morehead old-time festival in Kentucky last year. Edward also scooped third prize at the junior old-time banjo contest at the legendary Galax Fiddlers Convention.

Also appearing is the wonderful Kate Lissauer. Kate currently resident in England, is a highly regarded exponent of American old-time country music. Her musical history includes playing with one of Maryland's champion string bands, Rev. Chip and the Moonbrides, touring as a member of the legendary Steptones Appalachian cloggers, who helped to bring American step-dancing to the UK.

Kate began her career as a champion fiddler in her home state of Maryland, and is also an expert clawhammer and old-time three-finger banjo picker, a guitarist, and singer. She presently performs as a solo artist and with her band, Buffalo Gals who recently appeared on radio 4's Woman's Hour.

Advance tickets for this event which starts at 8pm are available from Weymouth Pavilion box office 01305 783225 or Dorchester TIC 01305 267992, or online via www.weymouthpavilion.com

ONE PIECE OF EQUIPMENT,
ONE GOAL AND
THAT'S FAT LIBERATION

AT LAST.....KETTLERCISE® COMES TO WEST DORSET

AT Last, Kettlercise® is HERE. After being launched a couple of years ago as a group fitness concept, Kettlercise® has featured in a range of fitness magazines, most recently, the March/April edition of Slimming World, and the classes have gone from strength to strength around the country.

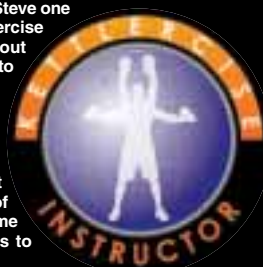

So WHAT IS KETTLERCISE® - Many people will be familiar with the kettlebell as a piece of resistance training equipment. They comprise of what looks like a steel ball with a handle and come in a range of weights from 2kg up to over 40kg. Kettlercise uses low weights due to the nature of the classes. A class consists of a basic warm-up, kettlebell specific warm-up, then 37 exercises, each of a minutes duration. The session provides a total body workout and is a great fat burning exercise, improves core stability, as well as producing great muscle tone and muscular endurance. The end of the session involves a cool down and post workout stretches.

Kettlercise instructor Steve Reed is a diploma qualified personal trainer, who, after many years in the fire service and a move to Australia in 2005, returned to the UK and chose Bridport as a great place to live with his family. A committed exercise professional, Kettlercise was a natural progression for Steve, who had used kettlebells for his own training for many years. Taking the instructors course with the UK Register Of Kettlebell Professionals was a fun and demanding course. His success has made Steve one of the only qualified and certificated Kettlercise instructors in Dorset. He is passionate about spreading Kettlercise to anyone who wants to learn this amazing training system.

Kettlercise has really hit the headlines after featuring in the health and fitness press, and class participants are seeing amazing body transformations, as well as enjoying the fun and social aspect that group training offers. To date, around 85% of attendees are female, but men are welcome and there are a range of kettlebell weights to suit all levels of fitness.

The first class will take place at BFIT community Sports Hall, Tunnel Road, Beaminster and will be on a Thursday at 6.30pm, beginning 24th May.

For more information on Kettlercise in your area or to book a space in a class, please contact Steve Reed on 07873 263 208, email kettlercise@stephenreed.co.uk, or join the Dorset Kettlercise group on Facebook. Steve's website is www.stephenreed.co.uk. To book a class at B-fit or for more information on other classes offered, please contact Richard Mooney on 07792 791 038.

The Jazz, Blues and Beer Festival is going to rock Lyme Regis!

THE Lyme Regis Jazz, Blues and Beer Festival looks set to rock the beautiful seaside town of Lyme Regis over the weekend of May 25th – 27th 2012.

The Festival follows hot on the heels of the successful Fossil Festival and, with great headline acts including a Louis Armstrong tribute band and the amazing King Pleasure and the Biscuit Boys, the festival promises to be bigger and better than ever before.

Tony Colston and the small group of local businessmen who stepped in at the end of last year's festival to save it from extinction, are keen to encourage even more local residents than usual to join in the fun. "We've extended the scope of the Festival this year to appeal to a wider audience," he says, "And the weekend offers lots of variety for all the family, so it would be really great to see more local people supporting the event as well as the loyal jazz followers that have been coming to Lyme year after year to hear their favourite musicians."

Organisers are promising a great line up of trad jazz musicians to please their faithful followers – many of whom have been returning to Lyme Regis every year to support the festival since its inception in 1990 – as well as a raft of more modern and bluesy vibes, delightfully washed down with a selection of mouth-watering ales from local breweries.

The weekend will also feature its traditional umbrella parade on Saturday, May 26th – accompanied by the amazing Louisiana Parade Band. "The Umbrella Parade is great fun and a real family event," Colston says, adding "It's a colourful and joyful spectacle and a great opportunity to really get into the swing of things. It would be great if we could have a record turn out to start the Festival on a real high, so please grab your brollys and come along and join us!"

Festivals like this play an important role in bolstering the town's economy and encouraging visitors to Lyme Regis. The organisers say that after a slow start, tickets are selling well and hotels and guest houses report that demand for accommodation is good over the Festival weekend. "Our aim is that everyone has a great time and goes home to tell their friends all about it so that next year the event can be bigger and better than ever. Lyme's a fantastic place and festivals like this help to keep the town vibrant and interesting for residents and visitors alike," said Colston, adding, "Of course we couldn't make the festival happen at all without the help of a really supportive group of volunteers and we are always looking for more people to help us make the weekend run as smoothly as possible. If anyone would like to help out, they should give me a call on 07818 426426, and I'd just like to take this opportunity to thank everyone in advance for all their hard work – it's really very much appreciated and fundamental to the success of the event."

IT'S A PLEASURE | King Pleasure & The Biscuit Boys

Full throttle fire and fury from Alejandro Toledo and the Magic Tombelinos

THE Magic Tombelinos, fronted by the charismatic Argentine – Alejandro Toledo, seem to have come from out of nowhere, not only storming the world music scene, but bursting its banks in the process and leaving audiences breathless, elated and shouting for more!

Triumphant performances at many festivals across Europe, including raucous shows at WOMAD and Larmer Tree in the UK, and not forgetting the release of their debut album 'Full Attack, With Sudden Defenses' are amongst the year's highlights.

With members hailing from Italy, Portugal and Costa Rica (in addition to Argentina), the group have woven together a cohesive, lithe and exuberant sound, despite their varied musical backgrounds. Elements of Balkan, gypsy, jazz and flamenco music (all performed with an assured swagger), coupled with their energetic off-the-scale live shows, have invited comparisons to bands such as Gogol Bordello, Mano Negra (Manu Chao), Rodrigo y Gabriela and Fanfare Ciocarlia.

Alejandro Toledo and the Magic Tombelinos play at Dorchester Corn Exchange at 8.30pm on Sunday, June 3rd as part of Dorchester Festival. Support for the night comes from superb local band Thomas & The Mock Ups.

Tickets cost £10 and £6 - to book call Dorchester Tourist Information Centre on 01305 267992, and www.wegotickets.com, and for details of all the Festival events visit: www.dorchesterfestival.co.uk

Alejandro Toledo and the Magic Tombelinos

Top Senegalese percussionist Modou N'Diaye at the Corn Exchange

DORSET has a long history of musical history all of its own; Modou N'Diaye represents a similar tradition from the Cassamance region of Southern Senegal. Come and see a fantastically stimulating performance which is sure to give us a taste of the West African sunshine, even in the face of our wet and blustery West Country weather! You may recognise the haunting sounds of N'Diaye's rhythmic percussion from the sound track of Hollywood blockbuster Blood Diamond. This is great opportunity to see a man who has graced the stages of Glastonbury and WOMAD festivals, an evening with N'Diaye is truly an experience not to be forgotten - between being engulfed in atmospheric beats to being astonished by the sheer number of instruments he performs - this is an event not to be missed! Tickets for his performance in Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday, June 1st at 8.30pm are selling now. To buy yours contact the Festival Box Office 01305 267992 or visit www.wegotickets.com and search for Dorchester Festival.

Modou N'Diaye is a member of the famous Cissokho family of Griot musicians and oral historians from the Cassamance region of Southern Senegal. With such a prestigious background it is no surprise to find that N'Diaye is proud of his heritage, and it is this traditional background that influences and shapes his music. Whilst retaining these strong traditional influences, Modou has developed a truly individual and enchanting sound. He plays a wide variety of instruments ranging from Djembe, Sabar and Talking Drum to his leading instrument - the 22 string Kora.

Modou N'Diaye is performing in Dorchester as part of the programme of exciting events planned for the Dorchester Festival which runs from the 1st-5th June 2012. When the world comes to town once again - we will be treated to a feast of entertainment - from the mouth-watering to the boogie inducing - there is something for everyone! As well as the ticketed events, don't forget there will also be a wealth of free entertainment across the 5 days of the festival - chill out with locally produced food and music in the acoustic café, discover the street cinema inside a huge pterosaur - and celebrate the queens jubilee in style with celebrations offered by Dorchester Town Council on bank holiday Tuesday.

From World Music to World Peace

Award Winning Radio Presenter and BBC Journalist Andy Kershaw to speak at Dorchester Corn Exchange

AN EVENING in the company of a man who has lived a thousand lives is surely not to be missed.

It is fair to assume that Andy Kershaw has appeared on many an "ideal dinner party" guest list, and this is your chance to hear a wealth of anecdotes from his extraordinary life - without the washing up!

"The Adventures of Andy Kershaw" sounds more like a blockbuster action movie than a civilised evening at Dorchester Corn Exchange, but if it's a jam packed evening of escapades and entertainment your after, all in the relaxing setting of the Corn Exchange and complete with a cool beverage then here it is!

'The Adventures of Andy Kershaw' evening will take place at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Sunday, June 3rd at 6pm as part of Dorchester Festival.

To buy tickets now call the Box Office 01305 267992 or visit www.wegotickets.com and search for Dorchester Festival.

International cricket star Henry Olonga to give talk at Dorchester Festival

CALLING all cricket fans! This wet British summer might be spoiling your enjoyment on the pitch, but it's not early tea time just yet! Zimbabwean international cricket star Henry Olonga is coming to Dorchester on Friday 1st June at 6pm as part of the 5 days of exciting events planned for the Dorchester Festival (1st-5th June). Olonga is famous for donning a black arm band at the 2003 Cricket World Cup representing his mourning for the death of democracy in his home country under Robert Mugabe; an act of quiet heroism which was to have serious and lasting consequences. Henry Olonga was Zimbabwe's first ever black cricketer and the youngest ever player to represent his country at international level. A fast bowler, he made his Test debut for Zimbabwe, aged 18 against Pakistan in 1995 and recorded career best Test figures of 5 for 70 against India in 1998. He still holds two out of three of the best bowling figures for a Zimbabwean bowler in One Day Internationals. He now lives in England and has embarked on careers in music, art, public speaking and cinematography.

Olonga's autobiographical book "Blood, Sweat and Treason: My Story" which deals with the political protest that made him famous was long-listed for the William Hill Sports Book of the Year award and nominated for the 'Best Autobiography' award at the British Sports Book Awards 2011.

Hear first hand this extraordinary tale of courage and exile from the international cricket star himself. Tickets, available now, cost £7 or £5 (concessions) to buy call 01305 267992 or visit www.wegotickets.com and search "Dorchester Festival".

Detached five bedroom family home in a popular location

THE property is a 1920s detached five bedroom family house in a popular and convenient location within walking distance of Lyme Regis town centre, beaches, coastal paths and towns amenities.

The property is built of rendered elevations beneath a slate roof with uPVC double glazing and cottage style shutters. To the ground floor; open plan kitchen/ family room providing plenty of space for dining and relaxing. A separate sitting room with original open fire place and views to the sea, opens to a large conservatory again benefitting from sea views and opening onto the attractive well maintained gardens. Stairs from the hallway rise to the first floor, with ensuite master bedroom having lovely views across the town to the sea and coastline, two further double bedrooms and family bathroom. On the second floor two further bedroom with eaves storage, Velux and dormer windows, the larger of the two having views across the town to the sea and coast. The property benefits from gas fired central heating, uPVC double glazing off road parking for several cars and well maintained gardens.

The property is approached from the road via double wrought iron gates with steps leading up to the front entrance door. To the side of the house a gateway provides access to the parking area, gateways to either side of the property provide access to the gardens. To the rear of the property there are two sheds one fitted with power and light currently used as a workshop. The landscaped gardens feature both lawned areas with raised flower and shrub borders and seating areas. An edible garden with mature apple tree and a selection of soft fruits including plums, pears, summer fruits and grape vine and a well stocked herb garden.

This five bedroom family home is on the market for £547,500. For more information please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell Lyme Regis on 01297 445666.

DORCHESTER MOTOR COMPANY

At Dorchester Motor Company, we have between us, over 50 years motor vehicle experience, 10 years with Honda and Toyota main dealers. With our reduced overheads, we are able to offer service and maintenance at up to 50% reduction on main dealer prices, and still offer main dealer service with collection and delivery loan cars and a valet service.

*Recently we have been included in the Approved Traders, Buy with confidence scheme.
We are also members of the Retail Motor Industry Federation.*

We offer a wide range of services here at Dorchester Motor Company - Body Repair, Tyres, Exhausts, MOT and Valeting. You can be confident that all work will be carried out by skilled and caring mechanics.

We have got all the latest diagnostic equipment to rectify most of your engine management and fuel injection problems including failed MOT exhaust emissions.

INSIDE EDGE - DORSET CRICKET ROUND-UP

WITH STUART BROOM

Runs finally flow in the sunshine

THE weather finally allowed a full programme of games for our local sides, and with it came some excellent batting performances including three centuries.

Jae Miller carried his bat with a wonderful 146 not out for Dorchester 3rd's that included an opening partnership of 201 with Sam Roles who made 72, his second half century of the season.

Hayden White, who has returned to play for Weymouth this season, hit an electric 122 off just 97 balls as Weymouth smashed Blandford for 305-7, whilst despite a splendid 115 from David Herbert for Bridport he couldn't prevent defeat against Portland RT.

Herbert faced the first ball and was out with the last ball of the innings as the Islanders won with just five balls to spare.

Dorset Funeral Plan League
Premier League*DORCHESTER 173-4 BEAT*FERNDOWN WAYFARERS 172-6 BY SIX WICKETS

DORCHESTER scored their second victory of the season with a comprehensive victory over Ferndown Wayfarers.

Having restricted their opponents to 172-6 they easily knocked off the runs with 15 overs to spare to keep them firmly in the Premier League title race led by unbeaten Wimborne & Colehill who they meet this weekend.

Dorchester won the toss opted to field, and some tight early bowling by stand-in captain Dan Belt (0-44) and James Dunham (0-16) saw Leigh Dunham (17) and Dean Elsworth (23) finding it hard initially to get them away.

Finally they began to break out but first change Pete Moxom (2-22) broke the partnership by trapping Dunham leg before. He also accounted for Elsworth, but Former Dorset player Eric Linge showed his experience as he anchored the innings with an unbeaten half century.

With James Lewis (0-26), Rob Waite (1-29) and Sam Goodhew (1-23) also producing miserly performances, Wayfarers target was relatively easy.

Lewis (40) and Moxom (39) gave them a good start with an opening partnership of 70 and with Belt (33) and Goodhew (23 not out) contributing well they reached their target with ease.

Captain Martyn Richards had to watch from the sidelines but hopes to be back this weekend said: "Our only problem was we didn't bowl them out and only picked up three instead of five bowling points.

"On the other hand they made no real effort to accelerate and just stuck to the task against some accurate bowling.

"Pete Moxom in his first game of the season bowled well and also batted well, and by keeping Eric Linge, who can be quite destructive quiet, meant we didn't have too many to chase.

"With our good start in reply, with James Lewis and Pete Moxom seeing off Rob Stammers who is an excellent bowler, it meant we only needed a hundred off 40 overs.

"Dan's captaincy once again was spot on and we look forward to pitting our wits against Wimborne & Colehill next week."

WEYMOUTH 307-5 BEATBLANDFORD 137 ALL OUT BY 170 RUNS

WEYMOUTH won their first game since the middle of last season with a good all round performance with bat and ball.

It was hard to tell that Hayden White has played little cricket in the last ten years as he blasted the Blandford attack all round the ground with a blistering 122 in just 97 balls.

Opening with Jim Ryall (18), the pair put on 120 for the first wicket with White hitting 16 fours and four sixes. Paul Payne (45) then helped him add 69 for the third wicket before Kieron Womble composed an excellent unbeaten 72 as he and Tom England continued the onslaught with a 94 run partnership for the fifth wicket.

Facing a daunting task, and with Blandford's Dave Trotter (3-27) continuing his early season form, only Lewis Mutton (39) found any form but when he went, run out by Dan Hutchens (1-30) who also bowled tidily, the visitors were in trouble at 86-5.

Cube Whyte (2-30), Matt Lawes (2-22) and Simon Browne (1-23) polished off the Blandford tail to give the Seaside an easy victory.

Skipper Dean Janaway said: "Hayden's innings was superb and set up the first win for us, but it was a good all round team performance.

"He hasn't played for ten years but got the bug in a few 20/20 games last season and is back to his best.

"Kieron also produced a brilliant batting performance later in the innings and showed just what a good player he is going to be.

"We are still a bit rusty in the field, but that is to be expected considering we have had no pre-season training due to the weather. Dave Trotter was first class with the ball again and well backed up.

"We are obviously delighted to have got a win under our belt and kick started our season."

Division TwoWITCHAMPTON 132 ALL OUT LOST TO*DORCHESTER 2ND 138-8 BY TWO WICKETS

IT took the experienced duo of Mike Peake (35 not out) and Stuart Voss (27)

CENTURY: Jae Miller

to steer Dorchester 2nd's to victory in a close finish.

The pair came together with the county town wobbling at 92-7 after dismissing Witchampton for 132, but they kept their heads and almost saw them home; Voss being dismissed two runs short of victory.

Mike Teague and the very quick 16-year-old Crispin Brown had bowled very tightly at the head of the hosts innings, and they and captain Stuart Beasley all claimed a wicket, but it was the spin pair of Krish Subramanian with four wickets and Aaron Oliver, who bagged the other three, bowling through, who polished off Witchampton.

Lewis Chutter and Ian Legge gave Dorchester a solid start in reply but a middle order collapse left them in trouble until Peake and Voss' rescue act.

MARTINSTOWN 97-7 BEAT POOLE 2ND 96 ALL OUT BY THREE WICKETS

MARTINSTOWN were made to work for their second victory of the season after seemingly having won the game reducing Poole 2nd's from 61-1 to 96 all out.

However they were made to struggle by some good bowling from U Tewari (4-24) and T Moyse (2-17) and only some solid batting by Sam Kershaw (17 not out) and Danny Way (8 not out) with an unbeaten stand of 23 for the eighth wicket saw them home.

Skipper Danny Dancer won the toss and decided to insert their opponents, but despite a good opening spell by both Chris Read (0-30) and Ross Stewart (1-19), Poole reached 61 with only the loss of one wicket off 16 overs.

However the first bowling change saw Dancer and Way enter the fray, and both took two wickets in two balls to reduce the visitors to 65-5. Wickets continued to fall at regular intervals as Dancer (5-23) and Way (4-21) carved through the rest of the line-up to dismiss Poole 2nd's for 96 in 30.1 overs.

Martinstown's reply started well but when Lee House (8) went with the score on 29, alarm bells rang as they also suffered regular losses of wickets, and it was left to Kershaw and Way to steady the boat and see them home with three wickets to spare.

Dancer said: "Credit to our groundsmen for producing a fantastic wicket. It was a difficult decision having won the toss but I decided to have a bowl thinking that anything in the wicket would be early on.

However I was thinking I had made the wrong decision with the score at 61, but I brought myself and Danny Way on and we had a mad five minutes where I took two wickets in two balls and Danny did at the other end bowling beautiful left arm spin in his first spell in Division 2.

"Our chase got off to a flyer, but then it got a bit nervy as wickets started to fall at regular intervals. Danny Way and Sam Kershaw were fearless and saw us home with three wickets to spare.

"I was really pleased because we had played Poole 2nd's a couple of years ago and were beaten on both occasions, and there were lots of positives to take into next week's game at Beaminster."

SHILLINGSTONE 132-2 BEATWEYMOUTH 2ND 131 ALL OUT

DESPITE an excellent half century from Ryan Monk, Weymouth 2nd's were comprehensively beaten at Shillingstone.

Opener Monk continued the form he showed the previous week by carrying his bat for 52 not out, and Michael Pearce's young side battled to the end on a tricky pitch, but their hosts passed the total with some comfort.

Division ThreeBRIDPORT 206-5 LOST TO*PORTLAND RT 210-6 BY FOUR WICKETS

Despite a superbly crafted century from Dave Herbert, Bridport went down to defeat with Portland RT winning with just five balls to spare.

Herbert who faced the first ball of the innings, was out to the last ball after cracking two sixes with his previous two shots. He and Dom Gape got them off to a great start with a first wicket stand of 93 before Gape fell for 47.

Liam Toohill and Rob Condliffe both went cheaply and although Ashley Nicholls hung around for a while they found themselves 136-4.

Mark Smith (22 not out) then joined Herbert and they accelerated the score, rotating the strike to add 70 for the fifth wicket before Herbert fell to the last ball.

Portland also made a good start in reply with C Leake and G Price putting on 83 for the first wicket and continued to accumulate runs against a Bridport attack that struggled with their length.

A double wicket maiden from Smith (3-26) in his fifth over suddenly made the game interesting, but Portland went into the last over tied and secured victory with the first ball.

Captain Toohill said: "It was a little disappointing as our score was definitely defendable. It might have been a different story but unfortunately we dropped Leake whilst he was in single figures and again when he was in his 70's.

PARTNERSHIP: Sam Roles

"Dave Herbert was superb. He played the anchor role and built his innings slowly, before accelerating in the closing stages with Mark Smith who not only batted but also bowled well.

"We were still a bit rusty in the field giving away some cheap runs and our bowling isn't quite there yet, but our batting is improving. As Portland showed, partnerships are the key to building a solid score."

BROADSTONE 3RD 154-8 LOST TO CATTISTOCK 156-2 BY EIGHT WICKETS

Cattistock maintained their position towards the top of Division Three with a comprehensive eight wicket victory at Broadstone 3rd's.

Division Five North & WestABBOTSBURY 70-2 BEAT CERNE VALLEY 2ND 69 ALL OUT BY EIGHT WICKETS

Abbotsbury recorded their second victory of the season with an easy eight wicket win.

WEYMOUTH LONGSHOTS 275 ALL OUT BEAT CREWKERNE 126 ALL OUT BY 149 RUNS

Crewkerne were well beaten in their first game of the season, going down by 149 runs to Weymouth Longshots who have won all three of their opening fixtures.

DORCHESTER 3RD 283-1 BEATBRIDPORT 177 ALL OUT BY 106 RUNS

AN incredible innings of 146 not out from vice captain Jae Miller gave Dorchester an emphatic 106 run victory.

Miller and in form Sam Roles (72) put together an impressive partnership of 201 for the first wicket before Roles was run out by Cerne Iverson.

Roles has started the season in a rich vein of form and this was his second half century in as many games; a patient and sound innings including eight fours.

Miller on the other hand was quite brutal, accumulating his 146 in 144 balls including 14 fours and four 6s.

Dorchester's innings continued at around six an over until the last ten where 100 runs was bludgeoned predominantly by Miller as he took full advantage of a tiring Bridport bowling attack, helped by some intelligent running between the wickets by Luke Voss.

With a massive score to chase Bridport's innings started badly when Peter Horne (1-17) struck with only his third ball, trapping Iverson leg before without scoring.

A 50 run partnership between the experienced Rod Gay (26) and a patient Lee Creedon (33) looked to get the visitors back in the game but was brought to an end with the introduction of spin; Roles (3-40) Trapping Gay leg before playing around an arm ball that went straight on with the score on 52-2, which Bridport felt was questionable.

Veteran batsman Fred Etherington (27) decided the best form of defence was attack and smashed 27 off only eleven balls before he became the second of Roles' victims, skying a catch to captain Pete Tucker, and Simon Parker followed one run later.

Voss picked up a smart catch at slip off Matt Stevens (1-26) with the score on 86-4 an early finish looked like it was on the cards but captain Toby Hall (27) and Creedon had other ideas, putting on a partnership of 47 before Roles claimed his third wicket by tempting Hall to drive upshily and was brilliantly caught by Cameran Lucas with the score on 133-5.

Callum Tucker then had Creedon stumped by Deadman before claiming a second following another superb catch by Lucas at mid wicket; this time holding the ball destined for the boundary above his head. Scot Parker (2-19) and Pete Tucker (1-8) brought the events to a close.

Dorchester skipper Pete Tucker said: "Jae and Sam batted brilliantly, both having their fair share of luck early in their innings but to put a partnership of 201 together was an incredible feat.

Good bowling performances from Pete Horne, Matt Stevens and spin duo of Sam Roles and Callum Tucker ensured maximum batting points."

Division Six North & WestBEAMINSTER 2ND 152-6 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 2ND 151 ALL OUT BY FOUR WICKETS

BEAMINSTER won the toss and decided to bowl first and despite Ben Goldsmith's positive attitude to score quickly, some accurate bowling from Terry Field opening down the hill and Ade Phillips (1-34) from the town end pegged him down and the scoring rate to 22-1 after 10 overs.

The evergreen Field (4-35) bowled his 12 overs unchanged, removing all of the top four batsmen including Goldsmith (18) and a solid Chris Bamfield (28). Martinstown were indebted Alex Skidmore (32) and J Reynolds (26) for a 40 plus ninth wicket partnership that saw them reach 152 all out, before Dean Hyett (3-34) mopped up the tail; young David Persey (2-43) impressing with two spells up the slope.

In reply David Penman (16) and David Hall (18) got Beaminster off to a steady start, putting on 39 for the first wicket. Dan Hillier then hit a brisk 27 including a six out of the ground and skipper Hugh Rathbone with a steady 17 kept the momentum going before Hyett steered them home with a very mature knock of 43 not out.

US sailing team finalised after Weymouth and Portland trials

ANNA Tunnicliffe and her Team Maclaren crew of Molly Vandemoer and Debbie Capozzi won the final place in the 2012 US Olympic Team – Sailing following a compelling four-day trial at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy last week.

Tunnicliffe battled with Sally Barkow and her Team 7 match race crew of Elizabeth Kratzig Burnham and Alana O'Reilly for the right to represent their country in the Women's match racing in a final 'first to six wins' over the course where the Olympic Games will be held.

Barkow won the first two races on the final day to reduce Tunnicliffe's lead to just a single at 4-3 but the Team Maclaren crew pulled out the stops to win their place on the team.

Portland Harbour is the ideal stage for match racing with a protected race course ideal for close called manoeuvres so intrinsic to the match racing discipline, and pending confirmation from the U.S. Olympic Committee, Tunnicliffe and her crew will be back as one of the favourites to win a medal when the games take place in late July and early August.

Bucks throw Cowboys again

Hythe Bucks 58 Weymouth Cowboys 46

THE Cowboys visited the Bucks for the second time this season, hoping to get revenge after a loss in the previous meeting.

It was the Bucks made the first move in the game with some very solid shooting from all over the court, this included a couple of 3's and gave the home side an early double digit lead.

However the Cowboys didn't give up and brought the deficit back, this was thanks to some solid rebounding from Lee Bennett and some accurate shooting from Sam Dodge.

At the start of the second quarter the Weymouth side started to bring the game back, Jack Speary and Filippo Romano managed to get a number of steals between them and scored on the break.

This was followed by great offence and both Giles Heaman and Steve Howlett managing to make shots when called upon. The half finished with the margin reduced, but with Hythe still 39-24 in front.

Straight from the start of the second-half Weymouth took the game to the Bucks starting with a three pointer from Speary. A great defensive effort from Ben Stokey and some athletic rebounding helped dent the margin causing the Bucks to call a time-out.

This didn't go in their favour though as Heaman managed to convert and then Andy Steel made some tough shots with no reply from Hythe, as the third third period closed at 41-48.

At the start of the fourth quarter both teams were struggling to score but the hosts stepped up first hitting a 3 pointer. It was the Cowboys turn next, answering back with a lay-up and the end of a good offence and a free throw from Romano.

But the Bucks closed out the game to win 58-46.

Coach Eric Olson said: "It would have been a great game from a neutral's view, but for us it was upsetting as we had enough chances to win, it was just a couple of possessions in the first quarter that let us down."

Roster/Scorers: Sam Dodge 13, Andy Steele 11, Jack Speary 8, Filippo Romano 5, Steve Howlett 3, Eric Olson 3, Jamie Dixon 2, Giles Heaman 2, Lee Bennett 2, Ben Stokey.
